“When you cannot receive Holy Communion and you do not attend Mass you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you” (St Teresa of Avila).

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – ST. CAILLIN.

St. Caillin was born in Galway in the 6th century and founded a famous monastic settlement at Fenagh. Before coming to Fenagh, he had a long course of study in Ireland and his first tutor was St. Fintan. To complete his studies, he went to Rome and for this journey it is said that St. Fintan gave him 300 ounces of gold. At the end of a long period of study in Rome, Caillin returned to Ireland and he brought with him relics of the twelve apostles and the neck-cloth of the infant Jesus. St. Caillin's mortal remains are in a vault attached to the wall (south) of the Abbey and here rests Fenagh's most famous son. His Feast day is celebrated on 13th Nov.

At the Ending of the Road.

There is a meaning in life's mystery, it's raptures and despairs. There is a reason for our sorrows, our losses and for our cares. There is a purpose in life's journey if with faith we bear our load and the hope of God's forgiveness at the ending of the road.

Cemetery Prayer.

May God's perpetual light shine upon the faces of all laid to rest here. May the lives they lived in our homes continue to inspire and to guide us on the way. May the memories we carry and share in stories, keep them part of our lives and part of our family.

May the gentle Summer rains fall like tears from the skies of Heaven to bless them. May the wild flowers and the Summer meadows whisper their prayer in the gentle breeze of silence. May the birds of the dawn chorus sing their prayer of the beauty and joy of Heaven. May we always reverence this sacred clay as the holy ground that holds seeds of hope.

May each time we visit, walk, sit, pray and listen here bring us closer to the heart of God's kindness. May the Angels guide them, the Saints protect them and the prayer of Mary hold them in the light.

Amen.

St. Mary's Parish

Carrigallen – Drumeela – Drumreilly

8th Nov. 2020 – 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

+ Remembrance Sunday 2020 +

Today we remember all who have died in world wars and conflicts past and present and we especially remember the many Irish soldiers who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

Dear Lord, we pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, the armed forces who have died in the violence of war, the civilians whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, and the children who are orphaned and traumatised.

We pray for all who have been bereaved because of war and that in their trials, they may know God's love and support. And we pray for peace-makers and peace-keepers who seek to keep this world secure and free, and for governments and politicians that they may have the gifts of wisdom and resolve in their search for reconciliation and peace.

Almighty and ever-living God, we remember those you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence. May that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all and create harmony among the nations. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Annual November Mass of Consolation for the Bereaved.

St. Mary's Church, Carrigallen on Tuesday 10th Nov. at 7.30 pm.
