A Time for Remembering

This Sunday, we gather in Drumlea and Mullaghboy for the third and final annual "Cemetery Sunday" event in the Parish for 2023.

We celebrate in remembrance of our loved ones who have gone before us and our ancestors who endured much hardship and made many sacrifices throughout their earthly lives. Because of them we are now here, and we thank God for the faith which they passed on to us. We recall treasured memories of the time and the love that they shared with us, and we pray that when our earthly is over, we will have a beautiful meeting with them in that invisible Kingdom where there is no more darkness, suffering, separation or sadness.

May the souls of the departed rest in the Peace of Christ. Amen.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In today's Gospel (Matt.13: 1-23) we hear the very familiar parable about the sower and the seed. Jesus is at the lakeside. As the crowd got bigger and bigger, He got into a boat and started preaching to them. The seeds that miss the soil, are sown on rocky ground, or are sown among the thorns will not grow, but the seed that falls on good soil will yield an enormous crop.

The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are images for the understanding with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom while others will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out. Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce an abundance of fruit.

In this parable Jesus is describing himself as both the sower and the seed. He is the Word that has come down from heaven and just like seeds, that word is continually dropped into our daily lives. Sometimes we may hear the word or sometimes it may literally fall on deaf ears. But when we allow the word to be sown in us, it will take root and when it receives the right care and nourishment, it will produce fruit which will improve the quality of our daily lives and our interactions with others.

Prayer for the Week: Dear Lord, let us try to be like the seed that falls on the rich soil forming strong roots of Christian faith and yielding a rich harvest by bringing Your words of love and compassion to those we meet on life's journey. Amen.
